

Surrey Fortune

Date of birth: April 5th, 2019

Colour: Bay

Sire: Soldier of Fortune

Dam: Brog Bearri

Trainer: Billy Aprahamian

Location: Adstone, Nothamptonshire

Discipline: NH

We are delighted to offer shares in Surrey Fortune, who we purchased for £35,000 at the recent Goffs sale and was earmarked by Billy as one of the best horses of Day 2. He's a 'racier type', so bumpers and hurdles to start, but longer term we expect him to jump a fence as a 2 to 2.5 miler. The sire Soldier of Fortune, son of the mighty Galileo, won the Irish Derby in 2007 and now stands alongside Getaway at Coolmore. He's out of a half-sister to Sholokhov (sire of multiple Grade 1 winner Don Cossack). His top offspring include Gr.1 Juvenile Hurdle winner Mega Fortune who was also runner-up in the Gr.1 Triumph Hurdle and Slowmotion, 5-time winner including a Gr.2 Juvenile Hurdle, Gr.3 and Listed Mares Chase. As you can see from the page there is plenty of black type and Surrey Fortune is closely related to Knappers Hill.

He's a lovely scopey individual with a strong and powerful walk although light on his toes. I love the way he rolls into a trot, comes up and forward. Big ears and a kind eye. He's had a fantastic summer, he really looks the part now he's filled out and we can't wait to see him on the track early in the new year.

Billy Aprahamian

Billy Aprahamian is a fantastic addition to the Surrey Racing trainer's roster, and we are excited to be working with him. Billy was Assistant Trainer to Nick Henderson at Seven Barrows for three seasons. He is well known to Surrey Racing having looked after our star NH performers Surrey Quest and Gran Luna, before setting up his own training yard. He has invested heavily in his brand-new facilities and continues to upgrade the yard. Prior to that he was in the British Army commissioned into the First Battalion Irish Guards. He rode to victory in the 2018 Grand Military Gold Cup on Baden.
