

Surrey Shadow

Date of birth: March 18th 2021

Colour: Grey

Sire: Territories

Dam: Elbow Beach

We are delighted to introduce our latest purchase Surrey Shadow, who we bought for 65 000 gns at the Tattersalls Guineas Breeze-up with the help of Anthony Stroud of leading bloodstock agents Stroud Coleman.

Surrey Shadow was one of only two horses in the entire sale that both Matt Coleman and Anthony Stroud agreed were worth bidding for. Despite spending slightly more than we hoped, we are thrilled to land what looks to be a great prospect.

The colt was very green in his breeze and didn't appear to handle the softer Newmarket ground but still posted a top 30 time which was good for a horse who will probably run over a mile and was up against a number of precocious sprinters who have really been 'prepared' for this breeze but are unlikely to do much as three-year-olds.

The sire Territories was a high-class Godolphin owner miler who was 2nd in the 2000 Guineas and won the Group 1 Prix Jean Prat in 2015. Despite his first two-year-olds running in 2020, the son of Invincible Spirit has already produced Derby runner up Hoo Ya Mal and Group 1 winner Rougir. The Dam, Elbow Beach, reached an official Rating of 70 and has produced a Group 3 4th.

Trainer: Tom Clover

Yard: Kremlin House

Location: Newmarket, Suffolk

Discipline: FLAT

Tom Clover is one of the country's most upwardly mobile trainers. Each year Tom has strived to increase the quality of the horses under his care, and this is clear to see with prizemoney increasing year on year. 2022 was the best to date with six individual stakes performers and one of the most impressive winners/runners profiles in the country.

Tom is joined in the business by wife Jackie, daughter of legendary trainer Michael Jarvis, and they are based from his former yard, Kremlin House Stables in Newmarket.

Interestingly, Tom also bid for Surrey Shadow on behalf of another client but fortunately for us only had a budget 50k! It is nice to be giving the horse to a trainer knowing that he likes him and wanted to train him.
